

Press Release:

Couchmans helps Can Communicate net Wimbledon 3D Deal with Sony

Date of Release: 20 May 2011

Couchmans LLP, the leading specialist sports law firm, has advised 3D production specialists Can Communicate on their ground-breaking 3 year deal with Sony to provide 3D footage of the Wimbledon Championships. The deal will see Can acting as technical production partner for Sony with the companies producing live 3D feeds of the men's and women's finals and the men's semi-finals.

The feed will be broadcast live to cinemas and broadcasters globally, offering fans a unique opportunity to experience Wimbledon and tennis in an exciting and engaging way. Can has recognized expertise in filming sports events in 3D, with recent highlights including the FIFA World Cup 2010 and the French Open at Roland Garros in the same year.

Couchmans' partner Nick White commented, "Broadcast and audio-visual production technologies and techniques are ever-evolving and we are always very pleased to advise pioneers such as Can Communicate on these important and high profile deals."

Can Communicate partner Chris Dyer said, "Couchmans know sport inside out and are trusted and valued advisers. Their commercial, rigorous and responsive approach is exactly what we need from our lawyers."
